

I live in a rural area with poor radio reception and I rely on the XM service to prepare me for my commute to the city.
I also do not think stunting the growth of new technology by limiting it's content is going to help our growth. If radio did the same thing to TV where would we be today?

Please reject petition 04-160